Country notes

Country	How applications work	Official information
United Kingdom	Undergraduate applications usually go through UCAS; most postgraduate courses take direct applications.	UCAS
Canada	You apply to each university (or the provincial application centre where one exists). A study permit is a separate step.	EduCanada (Government of Canada)
Australia	Apply to each university; the student visa is a separate step.	Study Australia (Australian Government)
Malaysia	Apply to the university; international student visas are processed through Education Malaysia Global Services.	Education Malaysia Global Services
Cyprus	Apply to each university; check its admissions office for intake dates and visa steps.	Each university admissions office
Malta	Apply to each university; check its admissions office for intake dates and visa steps.	Each university admissions office

Documents checklist

- [ ] Passport
- [ ] Academic transcripts and certificates
- [ ] English test results, if the course requires them
- [ ] Personal statement or statement of purpose

- [ ] Reference letters
- [ ] CV (for postgraduate courses)

Step by step

1. Tell us your field, level and budget, and the countries you're considering.
2. We shortlist courses and check each one's entry requirements and deadlines.
3. You prepare your documents with our checklist; we review your statement.
4. We help you submit applications and track responses.
5. After an offer, we point you to the official student visa steps for that country.

Costs

Our fee

$50 USD

University admissions support

Paid to Careers Beyond Borders for our advice and preparation only.

Paid separately to others

- University application fees
- English test fees
- Student visa fees and any health surcharge or insurance the country requires

Official fees change from time to time. We confirm the current amounts with you before you pay.

What's included in our service

- [ ] Course and university shortlist
- [ ] Application and personal statement review
- [ ] Document checklist
- [ ] Student visa signposting

How we help

- Course and university shortlist
- Application and personal statement review
- Document checklist
- Visa signposting after your offer

A tip from us: write your personal statement for the specific course, not for "a university abroad". Admissions tutors can tell the difference.
